

THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OF ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON

August 14, 2017

Dear Lector,

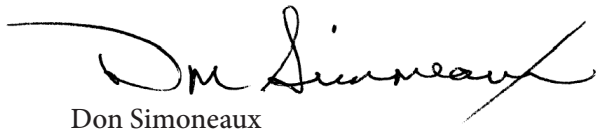

With summer almost over it's time for the fall schedule, which will take us to the end of the liturgical year and the beginning of Advent. With this letter I am distributing the schedule and the latest phone list, which you can use to contact other Lectors in the event you will be unable to serve when scheduled and need to find a sub.

New Lectors. We welcome two new Lectors on this schedule. Julie Atanacio will serve at 1:15, and Rachel Tiner will serve at 5:00 on Saturday. Please welcome them when you see them. The table below shows the name and contact number for the Lector Mass Leaders and the number of active Lectors on the schedule by Mass time. A few Lectors may be scheduled at more than one Mass time. Please let me know if you or someone you know would like to serve at 6:30 PM Sunday.

Lector Procedure Reminder. I still sometimes see Lectors waiting for the cantor to walk down the steps on the way back to the choir before proceeding to the ambo to proclaim Reading 2. We changed the procedure many years ago to ask Lectors to proceed to the ambo for Reading 2 as soon as the cantor turns to walk away from the ambo.

Holy Day Masses. There is one holy day during this schedule period. All Saints is Wednesday, November 1, and the Vigil Mass will be Tuesday evening, October 31 (Halloween) at 6:00 PM. The usual four holy day Masses will be at 7:00 AM, 8:30 AM, 12:30 PM, and 7:00 PM. The readings are in the Workbook for Lectors on pages 267-270. We will again be using online sign-up for Lectors for these Masses starting in mid-October. Please let me know if you would like to volunteer for a reading for one of these Masses.

New Workbooks. The new liturgical year starts the first Sunday of Advent, December 2-3, which means we will have new workbooks. Look for the Year B workbooks in the Lector Room in late October or early November. Please take only one per family so we will have enough for all current Lectors and those we will train in the coming year.
